Genoa Parley Drifting On Rocks

RUSSIANS BLAME ALLIES FOR BACKING PARLEY
GENOA, April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Foreign Minister Tschirichin, of soviet Russia, declared to the Associated Press today that allied resistance to the Russian principle of nationalization was making the economic conference.

"It is obvious," he said, "that the only serious obstacle to peace with Russia and general reconstruction are the pretensions of a few former owners of property in Russia."

LONDON, April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—There is reliable information, declares a Central News dispatch from Genoa that M. Barthou, of the French delegation, received telegraphic instructions today to insist at the conference upon the terms contained in Premier Poincaré's speech of Monday.

The French delegation, says the message, has declared it will press for a forty-eight hour ultimatum to Russia or else break from the conference altogether.

Premier Poincaré's speech created great consternation in conference circles. It is added.

Drifting Toward Rocks
GENOA, April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Genoa conference is drifting toward the rocks again. Whether it can be kept from wreckage depends upon the possibility of adjusting the new demands of the Russian soviet delegates with the position of the allied governments, who declare they will steadfastly stand by the resolutions adopted at Cannes, on which the conference is founded.

The situation is made more critical by the French premier's frank warning in his address at Bar Le yesterday that France will withdraw from the conference if she is unable to see that the ideas expressed by the French cabinet before parliament can triumph.

These French practical demands include maintenance of the war reparations figures, disarmament of all disarmed countries, and no changing of existing treaties at Genoa. In addition, France insists on rigid adherence to the Cannes resolutions, which call for the payment of Russia's pre-war debts and the restitution by the soviet of foreign assets.

Atherton, of Boston University, a member of that committee. Final selection of speakers will be made at tonight's meeting.

A Word Picture Of General Grant's Home Town Where President Harding Will Speak, April 27

Above: Main street of Point Pleasant, O., where President Harding will speak on April 27, and J. B. Wispener with carriage springs from General Grant's father's carriage. Below: The building in which General Grant's father worked as a tanner, and the house at Point Pleasant where General Grant was born.

BY ALFRED SEGAL
POINT PLEASANT, O., April 25.—To this village—population 145—the president of the United States will come Thursday to tell the country what he thinks General Grant's father, Point Pleasant's favorite son, whose hundredth anniversary will be observed on that day—April 27.

He will address the nation from the porch in front of J. B. Wispener's general store, which is around the corner from the lot on which General Grant's birthplace stood.

It will be Point Pleasant's one day of glory in a hundred years, one day of excitement in 175,000; one day of noise and of brass bands and of jostling crowds on Main street.

Town Little Changed
One hundred years after Grant's birth, Point Pleasant is much the same sort of a place it was then. If you and we stop and make a call on Morrell Cummings it will be as if we were going back 100 years and calling on the infant Grant.

Morrell Cummings, the youngest child in Point Pleasant, is six months old and lives two doors from Grant's birthplace. About him is the same setting in which Grant began his life: some of the same trees and some of the same houses that stood three 100 years ago; and the same sort of catshand-quint villagers; and the same quiet contentment.

The life and environment of the baby Cummings differs not at all from the life of the baby Grant, except at times his parents may go to a movie show in New Richmond. On the same wretched road over which the father of Grant drove a team for logs, the father, today the father of Morrell Cummings drives a truck for Wispener, the merchant.

Little Money; Much Health
The circumstances of the Cummings are like the circumstances of the Grants. Not much money, but health and contentment; wholesome food and comfortable clothing and wood in the woodshed.

And Point Pleasant is proud that time has not much changed its looks on its way of living. They say it is as if Providence wanted it left as it was 100 years ago, like a village that had gone to sleep and hadn't changed, so that Americans might see from what humble beginnings great men may rise in America.

Once Point Pleasant dreamed of greatness. It boasted several pork houses and a tobacco warehouse and a tannery on Indian street, in which Grant's father worked. And there was a pottery, and a factory that made catshand-quint. The village was a port of call for all boats plying the Ohio between Pittsburgh and the Mississippi, and it pork and leather and pottery were known far and wide.

Railroads Never Came
But the railroads never came to Point Pleasant, and industrial enterprise deserted it, and it came to mean going away to the cities, and it was left drowsing here in the hills, unmolested, except for the gas-line filling station on the highway and the automobile agency and the Ford that ply through the village.

So Point Pleasant's dream of greatness vanished; but Wispener, the storekeeper, says, "Isn't it greatness to be known as the place where Grant was born? Isn't it a great community that gives to the nation a great man?"

One Ambition
The village has only one ambition. It is that the house in which Grant was born be returned to it. Many

TRAGEDY IN UNVEILING

By NEA Service
WASHINGTON, April 25.—There is an element of tragedy in the belated completion and unveiling of the huge Grant memorial here on April 27.

The man who designed and executed the striking stargate group—T. Henry Merwin Shrady—died in New York on April 12, two weeks before his great work was to be dedicated. His physical breakdown was attributed largely to his work on the memorial, which he considered his great life work.

Mill Schedules To Be Maintained Despite The Coal Strike

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—With finishing and semi-finishing mills running at a rate slightly more than last week's schedule, iron production also was increased here today with the blowing in of a blast furnace by the Briar Hill Steel Company. Fifty per cent of the blast furnaces in the Mahoning valley are now in operation.

Steel operators today reiterated that the present mill schedules can be maintained indefinitely, despite the coal strike.

Pershing Says U. S. Prepared Could Have Prevented War

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—The United States, "with adequate military preparation and under strong leadership, could have prevented the occurrence of the world war," General Pershing declared today in testifying the senate military committee in behalf of the war department's plan for an increase in the military establishment over that proposed by the house.

Failure to recognize the existence of "envy, jealousy and hatred" among nations as among individuals, he said, had invariably led the United States into a great crisis and caused "unnecessary loss of life and left us staggering under financial burdens."

ALL FRUIT EXCEPT LATE APPLES HURT BY FROST

COLUMBUS, O., April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—All fruit except late apples was seriously damaged in central Ohio by the killing frost late last week, according to a joint statement issued today by W. H. Alexander, chief of the United States weather bureau here, and E. C. Cotton, chief of the bureau of plant industry for the state department of health.

The joint statement declared that but little damage had been done to the extreme southern section of the state, but that in northern Ohio considerable damage had been done to peach, cherry and plum trees and possibly to early apples along Lake Erie.

No estimates of the percentage of the damage done in the various sections of the state was forthcoming, either from the weather bureau or from the state department of agriculture.

Both organizations stated that it is still too early to ascertain exactly the extent of the damage, although the damage is known to have been severe.

GIRLS HAND BLOWN OFF
MARIETTA, O., April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Lena Talbot, 11, daughter of Willis Talbot, of Reno, east of here, was in a field with her mother and older sister, when she came upon some dynamite caps, one of which exploded when she picked it with a pin, blowing off her left hand at the wrist.

Shingles are now on the free list.

WIFE AWARDED THE INSURANCE

COLUMBUS, O., April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—By decision of the state supreme court, today, Alice M. Arnold, of Cincinnati, received the $50,000 insurance left by her husband, William E. Arnold, in the Order of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers. He was killed in March, 1919. The policy had been taken out previous to his marriage and Arnold named his three sisters as beneficiaries. Later, after his marriage, he transferred the beneficiary to his wife but did not send the transfer to the local order at Peru, Indiana, for transfer upon its books. The lower courts had found in favor of the three sisters.

Seek Duty On Shingles

JAP WANTS TO BE DOCTOR OF FISH

Turns Gold Fish To Silver
NEW YORK, April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Masunosuka Kazawa, formerly of Japan, more recently of Seattle, and now of New York, wants to be a doctor of fish. He does not crave an M. D., nor a chiropractor's license, but he does want to own a degree for research in fishes—any fish will do, but he specializes in gold fish.

Somewhere in Japan or Seattle, he heard that Columbia University supplies courses on any subject under the sun, so, on the instant, Kazawa came by ship and train to the domain of Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler and requested that the university allow him to work for his degree as doctor of fish. But microscopic study of the curriculum showed nothing in the line of fish. Kazawa retired to his home broken hearted.

"Why do you not teach fishes here?" he sorrowed. "You have doctor of horse, doctor of men, but no doctor of fishes. I want to know everything about fishes. I am sure there is more chance to study fish in New York than anywhere else."

Kazawa already has two fish degrees from the Imperial University in Sapporo, master of fish and master of science in marine products. He knows all about fish culture and when he came to America from Japan, started a gold fish farm in Seattle and made it earn money. He had eight ponds under glass; his hot house fish became popular and he became a fish alchemist.

"I turned gold fish to silver," he grinned, "and now I go to Leland Stanford to learn more about fishes."

Roundup Of Mountaineers

MANCHESTER, KY., April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Fendicks of Clay county who a few months ago were ready to shoot opposing clansmen on sight, have joined hands with each other and with the civil authorities to clean up Mill Creek, following the action of Circuit Judge Hiram J. Johnson, who yesterday issued warrants for the arrest of 200 residents of the mountain territory. All persons in the Mill Creek territory over 12 years of age will be taken into custody by the posse in Judge Johnson's drive to stop lawlessness in the mountains of Kentucky.

After issuing sixty warrants, Judge Johnson decided upon the wholesale plan and ordered all residents over 12 years old arrested.

The trouble about Mill Creek began Thursday when John Taylor, who had been summoned as a witness in a land suit, was shot to death from ambush. Deputy Sheriff Phil Stivers later that day was sent into the neighborhood with four others to serve warrants for persons wanted in connection with the shooting and other cases. They were attacked by sixteen men in ambush.

Mr. Stivers was shot from his horse and three horses from his party stopped bullets, their riders escaping by hiding until darkness fell.

Deputy Sheriffs D. W. White, Jr., and Robert Harker, members of the party, reported "that moonshining is rampant in the Mill Creek section."

A conspiracy among the Mill Creek residents to thwart the law has existed for several months, they declared. Those who are in the conspiracy have agreed to prevent arrests of members by force of arms and if necessary to kill officers who might attempt to make arrests, the officers said.

Children Born Of Lepor Parents To Be Taken To Manila
MANILA, P. I., April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Returning yesterday from an inspection journey through the southern islands, which included the Cebu leper colony, Governor General Wood announced 200 children born of leper parents will be brought to Manila within a few days. The children are from two to three years old, but are free from leprosy. It was originally the intention of the constabulary to establish an isolation colony on Cebu Island for children, but experts of the Rockefeller foundation, who visited the island with Governor Wood, decided it was more feasible to bring them to Manila. They will be placed in a public orphanage until danger of their developing the disease has passed.

GOVERNMENT HAS A PLAN TO SETTLE STRIKE

Operators To Add Another Demand

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Negotiation of a separate state wage agreement by striking coal miners in Kentucky and Tennessee, was announced today by Frank Farrington, Illinois, president of the United Mine Workers.

Separate wage agreements by locals in Illinois are imminent, he added.

In Alabama, he said, the state union officers have instructed members to continue at work.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—The government is working on a plan looking to ending of the coal strike which it will submit soon to both operators and union leaders. It was said today at the White House, details of the plan were not disclosed, but it was said that it does not include federal supervision of the coal industry.

The plan, which now is receiving the attention of President Harding and his advisers, was said to contemplate a permanent solution, if possible, of the basic problems of the industry. Presentation of the plan, it was indicated, would be made when a favorable opportunity presents itself.

PITTSBURGH, PA., April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers, who was here this afternoon, said that he knew nothing of the government's plan to terminate the coal strike and would withhold any comment until its details were available. Mr. Lewis will leave here tonight for Charlottesville, Va., where he will confer tomorrow with District President C. F. Keeney, one of the defendants in the West Virginia armed march trials.

BEIRFAST, April 25.—(By The A. P.)—Insurgent republican army troops today attacked a lorry carrying republican army regulars at Mulligan. Several shots were exchanged, marking the first fighting between the two factions. The regular troops were re-enforced and made six arrests.

DUBLIN, April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Brigadier General Adamson, commanding the Athlon brigade of the regular Irish Republican army, was shot dead today near the headquarters of the independent Republican forces in Athlon.

"The general being alone, compelled and, while his arms were raised the assassins deliberately fired into him. Several of the mutineers' officers were arrested."

HOW IT'S SPELLED

GENOA, April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—In view of differences over the name of the Russian minister of foreign affairs, who is here as head of the Russian delegation, inquiry has been made as to whether it is "Tschirichin" or "Tchirichin." He prefers to have his name spelled "Tchirichin" when it is to be read by English speaking people, with the accent on the second syllable.

The Russians seldom agree on how to approximate the sounds of Russian letters when used in the Roman alphabet, so that his name is variously spelled by his secretaries and associates, and there is the same variation in nearly all countries of Europe using the Roman alphabet, owing to their different pronunciation of the Russian letters.

In the documents of the Genoa conference, it has been spelled "Tchirichin," "Tchirichin" and "Tchirichin," the last being the Italian way.

This preference to have his name spelled "Tchirichin" when used in English, will hereafter be observed in these dispatches.

Probe Raid By Band Of Masked Men

LOS ANGELES, April 25.—More than an inquest over the body of M. B. Mosher, constable killed early Sunday when a band of masked men, of which he was a member, raided the home of Mathias and Field Edmunsen, at Inglewood, a suburb, was in prospect today.

W. C. Doran, chief assistant district attorney, declared that while the primary object of an inquest was to determine the cause of death, in this case he proposed to try to learn who composed the raiding band, variously estimated at from 100 to 250 men, and "who and what inspired" them.

Mr. Doran said there was no doubt that Frank Wooner, night marshal of Inglewood, who responded to appeals of neighbors of the Edmunsens was justified in firing the shots which killed Mosher and wounded his son, Walter P. Mosher, and Leonard Ruegg, a deputy sheriff, the latter seriously.

Witnesses subpoenaed for the inquest include young Mosher and Ruegg, William S. Collins and W. G. Price, respectively, grand juror and king knave, Pacific domain, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan; the Edmunsen brothers, who were bound and carried six miles from home; Marshal Wooner; R. C. Kieckhefer, a reporter for the Los Angeles Examiner, who was present at the raid, and a photographer for that newspaper.

The extremes in local temperature today were: High, 57; low, 48.

ENGINEER SAYS BRIDGE MAY BE BUILT HERE FOR $600,000

Tentative Figures Submitted To The C. Of C. Directors; Project May Become Reality

When the weekly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held Tuesday noon at the Mary Louise rooms, C. W. Brooks, chief engineer of the Wisconsin Bridge Company, with present headquarters in Russell, Ky., and Ironton, consulted with the directors on the proposed building of a bridge across the Ohio river at Portsmouth.

Mr. Brooks could only speak from past experience at this session and gave the directors figures on construction and maintenance used in connection with bridges already built. He could not go into detailed cost and maintenance with a bridge here until he had at least made a preliminary survey of local conditions. Mr. Brooks explaining that the place where the bridge crosses the river and land needed for approaches figured as big items in the construction cost of such an improvement.

The Wisconsin Bridge Company is an organization with forty-five years' experience and has built highway bridges at Burlington, Iowa, and Laredo, Texas, in addition to the bridge just complete at Ironton.

According to roughly estimated figures a bridge should be built here for about $600,000 and possibly for less. He also explained how the bridge projects were financed in various cities, some obtaining the money by selling stock while in other places bonds were sold for part of the cost and stock issued for the remainder. In discussing the amount of ferry traffic between Portsmouth and Kentucky each year Mr. Brooks stated that bridge traffic is generally expected to be 100 per cent greater. He also informed the directors that a bridge here should not cost as much as the one in Ironton as geographical conditions here are better. The bridge at Ironton is at a curve in the river which made building conditions more complicated than here.

Mr. Brooks also explained that many confuse the highway bridge with a railroad bridge and think that the cost is very great as railroad bridge costs are very high.

President Adam Erick of the Chamber of Commerce let it be known to the directors that the people of the rural community in Fullerton and vicinity are heartily in favor of a bridge and stand ready to buy their share of stock.

Mr. Brooks was thanked for coming before the board and for the information given. He was told by President Erick that a bridge committee would be appointed within a short time and asked Mr. Brooks if he would come before that committee when called. He said that he would be glad to come before the committee any time they wished. A committee will be appointed probably next week.

The directors today also had their first glimpse of a proposed combination court house and city building. The prospectus of such a building was on display at the meeting and the plan met with instant approval. As the entire time of the meeting was given to Mr. Brooks and the bridge matter the appointment of a new court house and city building committee was let aside until next week.

MISS MARY PAGE, IMPERSONATING MOLLO O, SHAKEN UP IN ACCIDENT

Miss Mary Page of Middletown, who is in the city impersonating Mabel Normand in "Molly O," which is drawing big crowds at the Columbia the first four days of this week, will be joined by her mother Wednesday. Miss Page has been employed for some time by the First National Pictures Corporation and she has successfully enacted her present role of "Molly O" all over Ohio and Kentucky. Her last engagement was at Lexington. She likes Portsmouth very much and has been greatly pleased by her reception here.

Arriving in the city Monday afternoon, Miss Page was met at the station by an employee of the Columbia with a much decorated and very dilapidated Ford secured from the Universal Motor Company. One of the Universal employees is acting as chauffeur for Miss Page during her stay in the city.

Many of the merchants who advertised in the Molly O pages in the Sunday Sun-Times were visited by Miss Page Monday afternoon and the others were called on today as she goods. Among the stores with specially decorated windows were Ahrend's, with Molly O ties; Marting's, with Molly O silks; and C. E. Cropper's, with Molly O candles. There the various music stores, including the Kay-Graham Company and Summers & Son, featured Molly O records and sheet music.

Fourteen of the winners of tickets to the Columbia theatre in the big Molly O contest put on in the Sun-Times of last Sunday have not yet called for their tickets. They can secure them at the advertising office of the Sun-Times second floor up to 5:30 this evening.

The Ford machine in which Molly O was riding up Second street this afternoon, shortly before two o'clock, skidded on the wet car tracks and collided with a Ford truck standing in front of the building of the Tracy Shoe Company. Miss Page was thrown against the windshield, bumping her head severely and shaking her up quite a bit, but she was able to continue her trip. The Ford was bent up considerably and the windshield broken.

Says Sick Swelling "Drug Firm Fortunes"

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 25.—(By the Associated Press)—Resuming his attack on the administration tariff bill, Senator King, Democrat, Utah, told the senate today that the rates proposed in the chemical schedule of the measure were to increase the "already swollen fortunes of the drug and chemical manufacturers of the United States" at the expense of the sick.

Senator King charged that some drug manufacturers, naming Parke, Davis & Company, as one that got rich by extortionate charges levied on the sick, and inquired to know if the E. I. Dupont De Nemours Company, which he said manufactured many drugs and chemicals, was "an infant industry" to be protected not only by high rates, but in some cases by an embargo.

Accused of Causing Girl To Forsake Home

Probation Officer Erman Gilliland has returned from the Garden vicinity where he investigated complaints made by Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Moore of Dunlap, involving two preachers and members of a congregation near Garden, for alleged contributing to the delinquency of their daughter, Dene Moore.

The girl recently became a member of the church and her parents accuse the ministers and others with exercising undue influence over the girl under stress of religious matters to the extent of causing her to partially forsake her home and become closely allied with their sect, which, it is claimed, has humiliated the parents and caused much sorrow in the home.

The probation officer stated that while at Garden he ironed out the matter and warned the ministers and others that they must refrain from further efforts to induce the girl to leave her home or in any way contribute to her delinquency under penalty of meeting charges in probate court.

GIRLS' CAMP IS ASSURED IF DANCE IS BIG SUCCESS

For the purpose of securing funds to finance the girls' community club on Brush Creek for the coming summer a dance and card party will be given at Baesman's Hall Wednesday night and the general public is cordially invited to attend.

As Mr. Baesman has donated the use of his hall and fine orchestra, for the evening, every cent that is taken in will go towards providing beautiful outdoor recreation for the young women of the city during the summer. The admission price for the card party and dance is one dollar and it is hoped that all available space in the big dance hall will be taken tomorrow evening. The special committee in charge promises a good time for all who attend and all are assured of getting many times one dollar's worth of enjoyment out of the evening.

By attending the dance and party you will have the satisfied feeling of having enjoyed yourself and at the same time contributing in a large measure to a good cause.

The use of the camp on Brush Creek has been donated to the girls club by Mr. Simon Labold and this means a great deal to the young women who attend the camp.

The members of the special committee in charge of the card party and dance is composed of Mrs. Clarence Nudler, Mrs. I. H. Goodman, Mrs. James Distel and Mrs. George M. Taylor.

If you are anxious to help a good cause along and have not yet secured your ticket, call on one of the members of the committee.

Will you be there?

MOTORCYCLE CRASHES INTO AUTO; 2 INJURED

Jeff Gillen, 32 years old, who was severely injured when the motorcycle was driving collided with a Buick roadster at Eighth and Gay streets Monday afternoon, remained in a serious condition at Hempstead hospital Tuesday although his injuries are not likely to prove fatal.

The accident occurred shortly after four o'clock when Gillen driving the motorcycle at a high rate of speed, crashed into the Buick roadster which was driven by Theodore Webb, N. and W. clerk, who, an investigation disclosed, brought his car to a dead stop and the collision resulted from the motorcycle skidding into the machine. Officials say Webb was in no way to blame.

Rud Pendleton who was in the sidecar with Pat Wallace sustained minor cuts and bruises but Wallace saved himself from injury by jumping just before the crash came. Gillen was pinned under the motorcycle when the force of the impact caused the machine to turn turtle and he was in a semi-conscious condition when removed to the hospital in an ambulance. An examination revealed that he had sustained a broken right leg below the knee and an ugly scalp wound back of the ear which required several stitches to close. Pendleton was also taken to the hospital where he was cared for until Tuesday when he left the institution. He received a small cut on the head and a bruised side.

The police investigation of the accident indicated the three men were under the influence of liquor and it is likely Gillen will be required to meet charges of reckless driving and driving while intoxicated when he is able to appear in court. The motorcycle was the property of William Payne, of Union street, who told the police that Gillen not only took the machine without his consent or knowledge but against his positive injunction not to take the car.

The campaign for new members and renewals to the N. & W. Y. M. C. A. was formally inaugurated Monday night with an enthusiastic meeting held at the building.

Splendid music was furnished by an orchestra composed of men from the N. & W. shops and the program included a number of vandyke stunts and songs by a quartet of Portsmouth young men and vocal solos by J. E. Lockwick.

Short talks were also made by C. P. Conrad and H. H. Fultz, captain of the rival teams entered in the drive. Both urged the members to enter into the campaign with a determination to secure the desired number of new members and the contest promises to be a most spirited one.

PEOPLE OVER 40

Death Rate Increases Much Faster After This Age Is Reached

To live to a ripe old age is the desire of everyone—but signs of physical decay begin to appear when this age is reached. Weak, thin blood, rheumatism, constipation, indigestion, sour stomach, weak kidneys, liver trouble and gall stones are symptoms that may appear. Finally and improper elimination of the poisonous wastes show that you must assist nature to relieve the system of these poison wastes other wise your life is in danger.

People over 40 will find that Bulzaria Blood Tonic, the famous vegetable family medicine taken once or twice a week will assist nature to cast the poisonous wastes from the system and help them to feel years younger.

Millions are now using this splendid vegetable blood and system tonic. Physicians and druggists knowing its effectiveness and purity never hesitate to recommend it.—Advertisement.

Don't Spoil Your Child's Hair By Washing It

When you wash your child's hair be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Multisil coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Multisil in a cup or glass with a little warm water is all that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water, and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. You can get Multisil at any drug store, and a few corners will last every one in the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Multisil.—Advertisement.

Twenty Four Years Ago Today Members Of Company H Answered Call To Colors

The ominous sound of the riot alarm on Sunday morning, April 25, 1898, or twenty-four years ago today, carried consternation into the hearts of thousands of people about the city, for it conveyed the news that the first official step had been taken for the transfer of the Ohio militia into the service of the United States.

The alarm was sounded by order of Captain Pritchard, of Company H, O. N. G., and warned the members of the company that they were wanted to report at the armory immediately. The fifteen strokes of the court house clock were followed in short order by shrill blasts of the water works whistle. Ere the last blast of the whistle had died away, half-dressed soldier boys were speeding towards the armory from all parts of town, and in an amazingly short space of time, the entire company, including most of the recruits, were assembled.

The soldiers after being told to be in readiness to leave the front, were dismissed until Tuesday, April 26, when a magnificent demonstration was given in their honor on their leaving for Columbus on a special train. The soldiers were escorted to the N. & W. passenger depot by thousands of friends and followed by prayers and tears and good wishes when the company left.

On the way to the depot the company formed in a half circle on the Gallia Square and Photographer Willis took a picture and at Ninth and Chillicothe the company halted and opened ranks, while the members of Bailey Post, marched through, with bared heads. The little act of respect was loudly cheered.

The officers of the company were: R. S. Pritchard, captain; Frank H. Pratt, first lieutenant; James W. Smith, second lieutenant; Forrest Briggs, Wilson Burns, Andrew Foster, Walter Trimmer and Russell Newman, sergeants; George Oldfield, Charles McGuire and Lou Smith, corporals.

The musicians were Will Fitzgerald and Earl Lawson.

RHEUMATISM CANNOT EXIST

In the human body if you will use Trunk's Prescription for Rheumatism and Gout, it is ridiculous, absurd and preposterous, in fact, it is a pure and a shame to talk about Rheumatism and Gout, much less suffer with it, either inflammatory, muscular, clastic or any other form of Rheumatism. Trunk's Prescription for Rheumatism and Gout sells for $1.75. This Prescription does not ruin the stomach, it does not depress the heart, eat all the meat and good food you wish while taking Trunk's Prescription. It does not contain any Mercury, Salicylate of Soda, Oil of Wintergreen or narcotics of any kind, but it absolutely and positively overcomes any kind of Rheumatism or Gout on earth. What more do you want? There is nothing just as good and it is impossible to get something better. It is also an excellent laxative. ## Parade Feature Of Sparks' Circus

When the strains of Sparks' Big Circus caliope pipes forth on the streets Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, starting the parade over the usual route, there will be many spectators on the curbsides to cry "Welcome to our city" to the elephants. The first thing to dazzle the eyes is the band wagon in the lead with its ten dappled gray horses. Dotted here and there are other bands and oriental musicians. There are lions, tigers, leopards, bears, camels, ponies and many gayly caparisoned, high-stepping thoroughbreds. In all there are two hundred, all prize winners selected from the world's prize stock show.

The menagerie cages will be open, displaying all sorts of creatures from jungle and plain. There will be the Sparks' dancing horses with pretty lady riders—in fact, all of the features which make up the program of this great amusement enterprise. The performance Thursday afternoon begins at 2 o'clock and in the evening at 8 o'clock. The doors will open at 1 and 7 to permit an inspection of the menagerie.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-Four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenuin, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenuin has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless. Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allenuin, who for many years suffered the tortments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenuin decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed every druggist to guarantee it as above in every instance. ## Helps digestion —and cleans a coated tongue

Thousands of men and women have found relief from various digestive disturbances by eating Fleischmann's Yeast.

It is human nature to want to find out "why." So far as science can tell us this is the reason:

Fleischmann's Yeast is a food abundant in certain elements which are necessary to health and life itself. It promotes the flow of bile and pancreatic juice. It has a remarkably beneficial effect on the whole digestive process. It cleans a coated tongue.

Try Fleischmann's fresh yeast in orange juice or in milk. Men like it in milk shakes and malted milks. Women like it spread on bread or crackers.

Keep your digestion in the pink of condition and your tongue clean and healthy by eating 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast fresh everyday before or between meals. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer today.

More than fifty members attended the meeting of the Woman's City Club held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Peckles, Second street. Mrs. William Schwartz, the president, was the chairman for the afternoon, while assisting Mrs. Peckles in welcoming the guests were Mrs. Geo. M. Osborne, Mrs. Charles Rowe and Mrs. D. A. Grimes.

Mrs. Grimes and her committee were congratulated on all sides for the splendid program they had arranged for the afternoon.

Musical features of the afternoon were two splendid selections "Spring" and "Caroline," given by the Sacred quartet: Mrs. Pearl Selby, Mrs. O. J. Deitzler, Mrs. H. C. Bugh and Mrs. Charles Storck, with Mrs. J. M. Stockham as accompanist.

James D. Williams also sang in a delightful manner "The Rose of Spring" by Paul Bliss. Mrs. Margaret Stahler Breese played the accompaniment for Mrs. Williams.

The usual reading of the minutes of the last meeting, by the secretary Mrs. Appel, and various matters of interest were discussed. Owing to the inability of several delegates to attend the Federation meeting at Chillicothe this week, other delegates including Mrs. A. W. Whetstone, Mrs. Albert Marting and Mrs. E. C. Turner were appointed to represent the club together with Mrs. Isabella Thomas and Mrs. Cornelia Treutbart.

The matter of whether the Woman's City Club was in favor of the proposed memorial for soldiers, which is to be placed at Camp Sherman, was decided when Mrs. Isabella Thomas made the following motion: "The Woman's City Club express their disapproval of a memorial statue at this time," which sentiment was unanimously voiced by the club.

The motion was acted upon at the recent session of the northeastern district of the Federation, and was voted down.

Others speaking during the afternoon were Mrs. Pauline McKeown who told of the efforts expended in beautifying the Union street school yard and of her own personal interest in the flowers and shrubbery which adorns the yard. Mrs. McKeown gave a brief history of each plant and flower in the yard and told of a memorial hydrangea that had been placed there as a memorial to the late Miss Mae Birch, one of the efficient teachers of the school, who died a few years ago. Miss Birch devoted her life to her work and was at her place in the school room when she was too ill to stand on her feet. Miss Edna Streich, who also spoke of the proposed planting of shrubbery, etc., along the Selby Trail by the City Club; and Mrs. William Schwartz, who explained the purposes of the Detention Home for Portsmouth now being considered.

The principal address of the afternoon and one of unusual merit was given by Miss Pearl Eichelberger, well known Portsmouth young attorney who was recently admitted to the bar. Miss Eichelberger in addition to a charming personality, in her speaking, has the power to draw and keep the attention of her listeners. She had as her subject, "The Women of Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow."

The following is a part from Miss Eichelberger's talk:

"Woman—ever the mystery of the ages, the unknown force in every battle, the power behind many a throne.

"Woman—yesterday we knew her today we are learning every hour—tomorrow—what?

"This subject is as wide as the world is wide and it has taken many ages to discuss it. Hence only a glance at the depths, viewing a few of the changes in our laws as they effect woman—yesterday, today and tomorrow.

"Some centuries ago a husband was permitted by law to beat his wife. Sentimentally woman's power was great, socially it was small, legally it was nil. This was in the Middle Ages when Scotch law held that a woman who committed trespass without the knowledge of her husband was liable to be chastised like a small child, and a law also declared that no man could beat his wife with a stick thicker than his little finger. Woman had but two choices open to her in life—matrimony or the cloister. The second was by far the more inevitable fate of the two.

The medieval lady's greatest fault it seemed was talkativeness, and although this was the only privilege she was allowed—for it was like-wise condemned. The better behaved ones receiving the proposals of marriage and all favors liable to be bestowed.

"Woman was dejected as a chattering, fickle creature in queer dress. And why? Simply because she was allowed no freedom and hence knew no differently. And this picture of woman has long been carried through the ages.

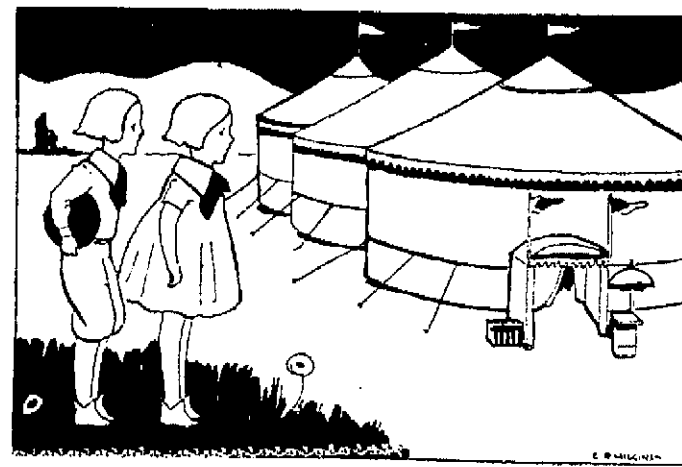

"But suddenly through this darkness of yesterday—a beacon light shown forth—ending to the enslaved woman a ray of hope.

"Woman suffrage in America first raised its head in Maryland in 1847 when Miss Margaret Brent, heir to Lord Calvert, demanded a place in the legislature of the colony as a large property owner. In revolutionary days Abigail Adams wrote her husband John Adams at the Continental Congress which was framing the laws of the infant nation—that unless particular attention was paid to the woman they were determined to form a rebellion and would not hold themselves bound to obey any laws in which they had not voice.

"Organized work for woman suffrage began in the U. S. with the Woman's Rights Convention at Sen-

Adventures Of The Twins

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

"Oh, look! There are the big Tents right ahead of us!"

THE seventh valley was called the Valley of the Circus.

"There isn't a bit of use in me trying to tell you not to stay here," said the dove who was guiding them. "One might just as well tell a fish to stay out of the water."

"Why?" asked Nancy.

"Because a circus stays here, when it isn't traveling around the earth," answered the dove. "And Twelve Toes and Tricky Trizo and Bean Meena have all gone together to work their wicked magic so that you Twins will have to stop. You'll forget all about your journey to the Kingdom of the Korsknots. But Flippety-Flop, a little fairy friend of mine, happens to be here now, and I'll have him speak to you after you have seen the most interesting things. Perhaps the magic will have worn off then enough to let you choose. I'll wait for you on the Hawthorne tree across the valley. There is only one more valley after this, you know, until you reach the end of your journey."

Away flew the dove, and at that moment there was the blare of a brass band.

Nick had just been about to say, "Oh, come on, Nancy. We'll fool the dove, and show him that those three old sozzers can't boss us any more with their old magic!" when the music started.

Instead he said, in spite of himself, "Oh, look! There are the big tents right ahead of us. Let's go in."

And Nancy, who also had resolved in her own little heart to do just what Nick had made up his mind to do and go straight ahead through the valley on the Fairy Queen's errand, said delightedly, "Oh, yes, come on. We must see this lovely circus! I wonder if they still have Tag Tiger, and Mr. and Mrs. Lion and Kicky Kangaroo and his mother, and Gyp the Giraffe, and all the others who ran away one time?"

By that time they were inside the gate. The man had let them in for nothing.

Wasn't old Twelve Toes a rascal! It was all his doing you know.

sea Falls, N. Y., called by Lucetta Mott and Elizabeth Cady Stanton. From the date of that convention began the fight that lasted seventy years. At a convention called in 1852 at Syracuse, N. Y., Susan B. Anthony assumed leadership of the cause to which she devoted her life.

The 19th amendment, drafted by Miss Anthony in 1875 and bearing her name was first introduced into Congress in 1878. It holds record of being before the country longer than any other amendment to the constitution. It having been introduced as the 10th amendment—it successfully became the 17th, the 18th and the 19th.

"Miss Anthony in 1872 made a test of the right of women to cast the ballot by going to the polls herself and voting. She was arrested and convicted—but though she refused to pay the fine she was never jailed.

"Illinois, Wisconsin, and Michigan on June the 10th, were the first states to ratify the amendment—quickly followed by New York, Kansas and Ohio, of which fact we are justly proud. Full suffrage is enjoyed today by the women of twenty-one foreign countries.

"Carrie Chapman Catt began her work for suffrage in her native state of Iowa in 1890. Since then she has lectured throughout the United States and nearly all of Europe.

"We are still going forward in the light of that beacon lamp lit so many years ago.

"Woman, today, we are learning every hour. Yesterday, liberty to woman was a luxury. Today, it is a necessity. After a hard struggle it has come to stay. Do we always realize, I wonder, when we are seeking the necessities of our lives today, that we are really looking for the luxuries of yesterday?

"Green trains and street cars were derided not long hence as the fruit of a crazed mind and the product of the devil. Then in such an age no wonder such a strange new thing as liberty was slow in coming to women.

"The old joke that so many women get off of the street car backwards because they are looking backward—

now too, is dead, for this thought is just as ridiculous. In this, using it merely as an example, the world is finding that it cannot judge woman as a unit but that it must judge them as individuals. That they cannot be herded together by a single method—they must be dealt with separately.

"Many women have placed on the great altar of betterment of womanhood, a lifetime of service. They have offered us the gauntlet. Come, will we hear it? The women of yesterday have come out of life's ravens. We are the women of today. What shall we pass to the women of tomorrow?

"We received the challenge of the mighty line, God grant us the grace to give the countersign."

A rising vote of thanks was given Miss Eichelberger by the club, at the conclusion of her splendid address, after which the session was adjourned.

The Home Guards of Trinity church will meet at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the church basement. Mrs. U. S. Curran will be in charge of the meeting, and a full attendance is requested.

Cards have been received announcing the birth of a daughter. Monday to Mr. and Mrs. William S. Piley (Dorothy Yates) Cleveland. The name of the baby is Alice Anne. Mrs. Piley is the daughter of Mrs. Alma Yates, Second street.

Now too, is dead, for this thought is just as ridiculous. In this, using it merely as an example, the world is finding that it cannot judge woman as a unit but that it must judge them as individuals. That they cannot be herded together by a single method—they must be dealt with separately.

"Many women have placed on the great altar of betterment of womanhood, a lifetime of service. They have offered us the gauntlet. Come, will we hear it? The women of yesterday have come out of life's ravens. We are the women of today. What shall we pass to the women of tomorrow?

property in Russia. Yesterday the Bolsheviks announced their intention to restore private property because everything was nationalized in Russia, but in their note of acceptance they voiced willingness to restore such property or indemnify the owners provided the country's war debt to the allies were cut down and financial help for Russia forthcoming.

Bolsheviks Had Different Offer

Instead of accepting the allies' demands for payment of war debts with the understanding that these debts be scaled down and the arrears in interest either postponed or repaid in part, the Bolsheviks had an entirely different proposition. They asked the complete annulment of all war debts.

Whereas they had previously agreed to the payment of the financial obligations due to foreign nations which are usually referred to as the pre-war debts, the soviet spokesmen asked for a moratorium of 30 years on these debts and the cancellation of the interest, according to the allied version of the meeting. This cancellation was to apply both to the past and to the period of the moratorium.

Such, said the Bolsheviks, were their terms, but they could only grant them on condition that the powers represented at Genoa would first agree to recognize the soviet government and accord it adequate financial help for its proper economic reconstruction.

Outlook Serious

"Under these conditions," said Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, chairman of the meeting, "we can not discuss any further. We must refer this matter to our respective governments."

It was then decided to adjourn the conference of experts on the Russian question sine die. All the experts except the Russians arranged to meet today and go over the entire situation.

The Russians contend that their general attitude as to making a treaty with the powers has been misinterpreted.

Despite the serious outlook, the heads of the various delegations have not abandoned all hope. Some, however, frankly informed the Associated Press last night that they saw no possibility of making an arrangement with the soviet unless the latter radically modified their program.

HOMELESS BOY COMES HERE TO GO TO SCHOOL; BUREAU SECURES LAD A COMFORTABLE HOME

What would you do if you were a school teacher, and a small, rosy-cheeked boy, with a satchel almost as big as he was, appeared at the door of your school-room and said he had come to Portsmouth because he wanted to go to school, and would you please take him in? And if, on questioning him, you found he had no home, that the only relations he knew of lived in Kentucky, and that he had come by himself to Portsmouth. With the one idea of going to school, that he didn't know where his dinner was going to come from or where he was going to sleep, but that he would like to go to school, what would you do?

That was the experience of one Portsmouth teacher last week, and she didn't turn him down. She was very sympathetic with him, talked with him, learned his story and then did the right thing—telephoned the Bureau of Community Service. Miss Hubert was sent over for him, and kept him at her house till other arrangements could be made for him. His story, that he was twelve years old, that his mother was dead, and that his other relatives were too poor to take care of him, was verified by a social worker from his part of the country.

When asked how he had lived since his mother died, he answered brightly that he had been in several Children's Homes, and that he liked them very well, but as soon as they found out that he was a non-resident, they had "kicked" him out, and that he would like to go to school.

The Bureau kept him several days until arrangements could be made for him. Much of the time he spent at the Bureau offices, where he amused himself by practicing writing over and over what few words and letters he knew. One afternoon Miss Hubert took him to the movies. He came back looking as forlorn as could be.

"Why, what's the matter, sonny?" asked Miss Hubert, thinking he had lost his dime, or something.

"The lady in the movie looked just like my mother, and she had the same name," and the poor little fellow burst into tears. These were the first tears that had been seen on his face. Ordinarily he is a bright and cheerful little fellow. He is twelve years old, very short for his age, being less than four feet high, but very robustly built.

Miss Hubert applied to the Methodist church, which came to her aid in true Christian spirit, and made arrangements to place him in the Worthington home in Columbus, where he will be kept until he is adopted in a real home.

Home Kiddies To Enjoy Circus

Thursday will be another happy day for the kiddies of the Children's Home when as guests of the Times and the Portsmouth Street Railway and Light Company they will attend the Sparks Circus.

The Times will furnish the tickets to admit every child who is old enough to enjoy the

The announcement that they would spend the afternoon with the animals and clowns and acrobats of the big show was greeted with shouts of joy by the children and they are counting the hours until the traction that is to take them to the circus, stops in front of the home Thursday afternoon. It will be a treat for others who attend the show to see the happy smiles on the faces of the children from the home, to whom this day of joy means so much.

Can't Beat This System

A system has been inaugurated through co-operation of state and county officials under which it will be next to impossible for automobile owners to escape paying taxes on their machines in the future, as many have in the past. County Auditor Roy Colburn says,

Under the new plan, when an automobile makes application for a license, the Secretary of State certifies that fact to the county auditor, which enables him to check up the tax returns. Those failing to list their machines are detected in this way and their trouble comes ahead of the offenders, as they are subject to the added penalties. In view of the above, it behooves every automobile owner to see that their machine is properly listed on the personal tax return, which must be filed with the auditor on or before May 1.

Petit Jury To Report

The petit jury will be required to come back for service in Common Pleas court at one o'clock Monday, when the paternity suit of the State of Ohio on relation of Marie Fred Shaw against Herman Greenberg, traveling salesman, will be called for trial before Judge Thomas.

An effort is being made by the assignment commissioner to schedule a number of cases for hearing during the week before the court and jury return.

Merchants To Advertise Portsmouth; Fall Festival Assured

Many Good Ideas Advanced; Extensive Advertising Campaign Planned; Rousing Meeting Held

Possibility of the Chamber of Commerce, through its retail merchants, reviving the spirit of the Kora Carnival that so widely advertised Portsmouth for several years was favorably discussed at a well-attended meeting of retail merchants in the Chamber of Commerce assembly room last night when the Retail Merchants' Bureau committee presented trade promotion proposals.

The Fall Festival celebration planned would not be a Kora Carnival, but something along the same order with music as the main attraction, advance word from the Ladies Musical being that they would be more than willing to cooperate in anything the merchants would do to advertise Portsmouth. The discussion of such a festival of music met with instant favor judging from the many short talks in favor of such a proposition. The question of a festival of music or entertainment of some nature was brought before the meeting when men present said that the farmers and rural residents today have their automobiles and instead of waiting entertainment brought to them when it provided when they come to the city.

In addition to the discussion of the festival plan the retailers voted as a unit to have the Retailers Committee take up first and as the most important in a trade development program systematic newspaper advertising.

Albert Marting appointed to look into newspaper advertising as a means of having Portsmouth made a splendid report showing that he had been busy during the last ten days. He reported that in talks with managers of the daily papers that special rates had been secured for the organization, and also added that special help was to be given in the preparing of ads that would boost Portsmouth as the logical trading center of the community included within a radius of 35 miles of the Peerless City. He urged the running of half page advertisements in the Daily Times and Portsmouth Sunday Sun-Times for 32 weeks, these to boost Portsmouth in every way as a trading and shopping center. He pointed out the many places reached by the circulation of the papers and how they would reach as many people as any other plan of advertising that could be suggested.

Big Mailing List

W. A. Pepper appointed to look into the possibilities of securing a general mailing list also reported. He found that a mailing list containing 21,500 names would include territory in Sevier, Lawrence, Jackson, Pike, Ross and Adams counties, Ohio and Greenup and Lewis counties, Kentucky. The mailing list plan was to send out several letters each year advertising Portsmouth as a shopping and trading center, the letter not to advertise any special line of merchants but all retailers as a whole. Mr. Pepper also quoted the price on the list showing that it could be obtained for a moderate sum. The list could also be used by individual merchants in advertising special sales, etc. Several present spoke in favor of the mailing list plan but added that it would be better to use the newspaper advertising plan first.

George Ahrend appointed to investigate the possibility of sociability tours, reported that such tours would not cost a big sum, explaining that the only cost would be for an orchestra and for renting of a piano which would have to be placed on a truck. Although several spoke in favor of his plan at first they expressed a change of opinion when others mentioned that the rural residents today have their automobiles and drive to the city for entertainment. Others said that spring, summer and fall are not opportune times to call on the farmer as they were their busy seasons.

It was the discussion of providing entertainment for the rural visitor in the city that the Kora Carnival or Fall Festival plan was broached.

Mr. Horebow Chairman

Samuel Horebow presided as chairman and after Messrs. Marting, Pepper and Ahrend reported he called for opinions from those present as to what project they desired taken up first, the committee desiring an expression of some kind so they could be guided in their work of boosting Portsmouth for the retailers of the Peerless City. He said he took the job as chairman of the committee with the understanding that something was going to be accomplished and wanted it understood that he would see that the committee did something or he would resign. He called upon various ones for remarks. J. A. Bode, Henry Atlas, W. W. Anderson, L. J. Bruns, W. A. Pepper, Dan Thomas, William Atlas, Albert Marting, I. B. Thompson, M. Lehman, Karl Zoellner, Henry Winters, Henry Heer and others responding and speaking on the plans they thought best.

All endorsed the newspaper advertising plan and added that the advertisements could be used to carry to the people the special trade promotion projects that would be worked out in connection with the advertising. The projects mentioned included, except the Fall Festival and sociability tours.

When Chairman Horebow asked for other opinions as to what the committee could do to boost Portsmouth as a trading point M. Lehman suggested the excursion plan. His plan was to run excursions on different days from Waverly, Seaman, Jackson, Greenup and Maysville. The Retailers Committee would call on the railroad agents to obtain special rates and should the excursion prove a paying proposition some plans could be worked out whereby railroad fares could be returned to buyers. The Retailers Committee will take this suggestion under consideration as well.

as the Fall Festival suggestion and after investigating probable cost will report another mass meeting of retail merchants.

The merchants were well over the fifty mark and showed that the merchants are interested in the trade development projects being taken up by the Retailers Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Plans for financing the projects will also be taken up by the Retailers Committee. If possible money will be obtained from the C. of C. treasury but should the cost of the projects be more than the budget of the C. of C. would allow plans of financing the projects by the merchants will be worked out.

At the close of the trade boosting discussions a letter was read inviting local merchants to attend a meeting of Retail Granters of Credit, of Southern Ohio, to be held at Chillicothe, May 18. A committee consisting of Samuel Horebow, J. C. Harris, James Dixon, W. W. Anderson, and a representative from Marting Bros., was appointed to represent the local body there, and it was noted that as many as possible attend on that day.

The Merchants' Committee of the Chamber of Commerce is in charge of the plan to boost Portsmouth as a shopping center. It is composed of Samuel Horebow, chairman; W. A. Pepper, William Titchell, W. W. Anderson and Joe Komatz.

Mr. Bruce Ishmael, one of the popular tenors of Trinity Church choir, was pleasantly surprised by his organization at his home on Offene street last evening, the event being planned by Mrs. Ishmael in honor of his birthday. Mr. Ishmael has been accustomed to attend the rehearsal of the "Elijah" being held each Monday evening at the library and last evening was requested by his wife not to stay past 8:15. Being a dutiful husband and not suspecting, Mr. Ishmael made haste to accede to his wife's request. In the meantime the members of the Trinity choir were hidden away in the front parlor. When Mr. Ishmael entered his wife requested him to light the light in the parlor, and upon opening the door was met by the outstretched hands and congratulations of the choir. As is always the case when these folks get together, the evening passed quickly in much merriment before retiring to their homes. Mr. Ishmael was presented with a handsome hand-made picture, which he will treasure in his beautiful new home now being constructed on Seventeenth street. The serving of ice cream and cake brought to a close a happy evening and the guests departed wishing Mr. Ishmael many more such pleasant birthdays.

Sears Tells Rotary, "We Are Going Ahead"

money in our company loses a dollar." The following seven directors were declared elected: Harry Chapman, Addison P. Mitchell, Dayton Lewis, John A. Polard, Al Spethardt, W. S. Barrett and Frank A. Brown.

The great need and many advantages of the new athletic field were explained in brief talks by Al Heston, H. H. Bennett, J. H. Mason and Timmons Harman, appointed by the Athletic club to give the talks. —Chillicothe Gazette.

A "get-together" meeting of graduates and former students of Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, was held Saturday evening at the home of Miss Margaret Dawson on Jackson street. Thirty-six students and a few guests were present and thoroughly enjoyed the informal reunion. An impromptu program and reminiscences of college days were among the pleasant features of the evening. Before the students adjourned the hostess served delicious refreshments. The Miami colors of scarlet and white were carried out in the decorations and refreshments, and the favors were scarlet confections.

To Stop Falling Hair

If you are losing your hair and fear baldness—don't worry. Use Parisian Sage daily for a week and you will surely be surprised to see how quickly it stops falling hair and itching scalp and removes every sign of dandruff—the hair destroyer.

"A New York woman says: 'I have used Parisian Sage only two weeks, but my hair has wonderfully increased in beauty, seems much heavier, and is entirely free of dandruff.'"

If you want to save your hair and make it grow, don't delay—begin using Parisian Sage tonight. It's not expensive and sold by druggists, grocers, and all drug and toilet counters with money back guarantee. —Advertisement.

SAVING BY BUDGET

Two men were talking.

One said: "I will have to earn some outside money. I can't make ends meet on my salary."

Replied his friend, "Why don't you budget your income, Mack? When I receive my check, I cash it at the FIRST NATIONAL BANK and put 10 percent of it in my savings account, then spend so much for this, so much for that, all according to plan."

If you are in Mack's position, try SAVING-BY-BUDGET.

Come in and let us explain how to do it.

"Education
Of Citizens
Safeguard Of Republic"

BALTIMORE, MD., April 25.—(By the Associated Press).—The education of citizens is the safeguard of a republic. This motto, printed on the convention program, is the idea which Mrs. Maud Wood Park, president of the National League of Women Voters, in her opening address at the third annual convention of the league here today, said she would like to put before the convention as a guide for its deliberations.

"Because this government by the people," she said, "was founded to bring about the safety and happiness of the citizens through a political system clean, efficient and just, and because the women of the United States have at this time a peculiar opportunity given by their recent enfranchisement to help in the full realization of this great ideal, we are banded together to do our part. That I take to be the underlying faith of the League of Women Voters."

It must needs rest upon three conventions, Mrs. Park declared. First, the belief that when a majority of the voters are intelligently and actively interested in public affairs good government is assured for the reason that good government is plainly to the advantage of the vast majority of men and women. Second, that women are particularly able to help at this time in training to the activities of good citizenship an enormous number of persons, who, on the whole, are well meaning and realize that they have much to learn. Third, the belief that women have a contribution all their own to make to public affairs.

Better Prices For Tobacco

Better prices for Burley Tobacco already have been paid on account of the organization of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association.

Men who remained outside the organization shared in the benefits according from the better prices due to the organization of the Association, there is mighty little doubt about that.

Your banker, your merchant, your professional men, all favor the plan on which this Association was organized. The growers who have delivered their crops are pleased with the results. Ask any of them.

There are now more than 58,000 growers of Burley Tobacco who have come to the definite conclusion to drop the old wasteful dumping system of selling their tobacco and to adopt the modern, sensible, business-like merchandising plan so successful wherever it has been given a fair trial.

The only people who are asking you to stay out of the Association are those who would profit by your staying out. YOU will not profit, but THEY will, and they know it.

Come join your neighbor in this movement and let's make it unanimous. For information and contract write to

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, April 25.—Reactionary tendencies dominated the early dealings in today's stock market, declines outnumbering gains for the first time in several weeks. Among the few exceptions were United States Steel and Studebaker, both scoring functional advances. New Haven, leader of the preceding session, opened unchanged, but soon lost half a point. Oils as a group were moderately lower with rails and equipments. Columbia Gas made the one noteworthy gain, rising 1 1/2 points. Automobile specialties, notably the rubber tire division, added to yesterday's gains. Federal Mining and Smelting preferred also displayed pronounced strength. Foreign exchanges were irregular. German marks forfeiting much of the recent recovery.

Opening losses soon were cancelled on the demand for local transactions, motors and rails. Manhattan Elevated was the chief feature, gaining 3 1/2 points. Third Avenue rose 2 1/2 and other strong local issues included Brooklyn Rapid Transit and Consolidated Gas. Studebaker's advance of almost 2 points brought it within a fraction of its recent record. Motor accessories, amid further gains and metals were strong on buying of international Nickel and National Lead. New Haven reacted one point and Ann Arbor fell under pressure, but Erie, first and second preferred, Kansas City Southern, Omaha, Louisville and Nashville, Norfolk and Western, Railroad and Pittsburgh and West Virginia gained 1 1/2 to 2 points. Call money opened at 3 1/2 per cent.

Standard industrials and rails were under continuous pressure in today's stock market, but minor transportation, utilities and specialties made substantial gains. Sales approximated 1,300,000 shares.

The closing was irregular.

Thou Shalt Not Steal

"Thou Shalt Not Steal" is the seventh commandment. Every man must be just towards his neighbor. We are commanded to give to all men what belongs to them and to respect their property. Man has a right to property justly obtained. It is obtained in a just manner by labor, purchase, gift, inheritance and natural increase. We are bound to pay our just debts within a reasonable time. The seventh commandment forbids all unjust taking or keeping what belongs to another. We are bound to restore ill-gotten goods, or the value of them, as far as we are able, otherwise we cannot be forgiven. We are obliged to repair the damage we have unjustly caused. Industrial peace will come when capitalists and labor both observe the rules of justice.

It will have a frontage of about 180 feet on Kinney's Lane. The front part of the present Mercy Hospital is to come down and the new part in the rear will be joined with the new building.

Chicago Grain And Provisions CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, April 25.—Heavy selling which looked like liquidation on the part of eastern holders led to a decided break in wheat prices today. The break came soon after the opening, which was at an advance as a result of comparative strength of quotations in Liverpool. Gossip, however, was current about possible large deliveries here on May contracts and about difficulty of disposing of cash wheat at May prices. The opening, which varied from 1/2 to 1 1/4 higher, with May 1.46 1/2 to 1.47 and July 1.20 to 1.21 1/2, was followed by a slight further advance and then by a rapid descent that in some cases went more than five cents under early top figures.

Corn and oats paralleled the action of wheat. After opening unchanged to 1/4 @ 1/2 higher, July 65 1/2 to 65 3/4, the corn market dropped well below yesterday's final figures. Oats started 1/2 @ 3/4 off to 1/4 advance, July 40 1/2 to 40 3/4, and later declined all around.

Provisions were weak with hogs and grain.
The closing was heavy at 14c to 7c net decline, with May 1.40 1/2 to 1.41 and July 1.27 1/2 to 1.27 3/4.
The close was weak, 3/4 @ 1c to 1 1/4 @ 1 1/2 lower, with July at 64 1/2 to 64 3/4.

Seek Jury In Small Trial

WAUKEGAN, ILL., April 25.—(By the Associated Press)—One man tentatively accepted as a juror by state and defense and another passed by the defense sat in the jury box today as the result of the first day of the trial of Len Small, governor of Illinois, on a charge of conspiracy to embezzle state funds. ## 115,000 ENLISTED ARMY STRENGTH BELOW SAFE MINIMUM OF NATION

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The 115,000 enlisted strength army bill passed by the house provides a military structure "below the safe minimum requirements of the nation." Secretary Weeks told the senate appropriations committee today in arguing that appropriations for the next fiscal year permit a force of 35,000 officers and 150,000 men to be maintained in the regular army.

Should the house proposals prevail, he added, not only would the regulars suffer, but overseas garrisons would be "inadequate and the development of a 'citizen' component of our national defense system" would be seriously checked.

"I am aware of no issue that at the present time threatens to involve us in international complications," Mr. Weeks said.

"There is no evidence of foreign designs against us. We must, however, recognize that throughout the greater part of the world a condition of instability prevails which renders the permanence of world peace uncertain."

"It is certain that to remain weak and unprepared in the face of such a situation is to invite aggression. It is, moreover, essential not only that we maintain a reasonable state of preparedness, but that it should be a matter of international knowledge that we are so prepared."

"The army needs steadily more than anything else," Mr. Weeks said, "renewing the double cut in the strength of the forces made last year and the consequent reorganizations required."

"If this situation is to continue from year to year," he added, "it must have a serious effect upon the development of our whole system of national defense."

J. A. Shriver, one of Manchester's most prominent citizens and quite well known in this city, dropped in on Portsmouth friends Tuesday and while here announced himself as a candidate for the nomination of state senator for the seventh and eighth districts, comprised of Adams, Gallia, Jackson, Lawrence, Meigs, Pike, Scioto and Vinton counties on the Republican ticket. Mr. Shriver has twice contested for the nomination of this office and in each fight made a most commendable showing, attesting to the high regard in which he is held by the Republican electors. He stated that in the event of his election he could be counted upon to father any measure that had for its object the reduction of taxes. His past life bears him out in this regard. While a man of progressive ideas, nevertheless he will always oppose any proposition that has for its object the spending of the people's money without regard to results. He is making a tour of the county, and says he has met with encouragement all along the line. Mr. Shriver contends that Adams county is entitled to a representative in the upper branch of the general assembly, for it has been 27 years since that county had a state senator. From here Mr. Shriver went to fronton.

Huge Expenditures Necessary To Bring Nation's Highways Up To Standard Efficiency

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Large expenditures will be necessary to bring the two and a half million miles of rural highways in the United States up to the standard efficiency comparable to their extended use in motor transportation, in the opinion of the joint congressional commission of agricultural inquiry, whose general conclusions on the subject were announced today by Chairman Anderson. In the second report of the commission's studies, the first having dealt with agricultural freight rates, the chairman also made known his conclusions regarding electric railway developments and questions relating to the postal service.

The commission, Chairman Anderson said, will recommend that Congress continue to promote an adequate program of highway construction and maintenance directed to the more effective correlation of highway transportation with rail and water transportation and that the states and counties also continue their highway programs with particular reference to farm-to-market roads.

The necessity of cooperation among the states to effect a uniform basis for taxing motor trucks and other motor vehicles, to fairly represent the proportion of highway expenses chargeable to such vehicles will be urged by the commission, it was said, as well as the need for uniform regulation of motor traffic.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Martha Jane Shonkewiler, age 70, died Monday afternoon about four o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Schoonover, 1206 Gay street, after an illness extending over a period of two years. She has been in a serious condition for about three months. Death was caused by a complication of diseases.

Martha Jane Radebaugh was born in Jackson county on May 7, 1845, being 76 years, 11 months and 29 days old at the time of death. She had been a resident of Scioto county for more than 52 years. Her husband, Simon Shonkewiler, died 34 years ago, and one son died in infancy.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. C. W. Schoonover, of 1206 Gay street and Mrs. James Barrette of Sciotoville; four sons, Oliver and Reuben of Sciotoville and Daniel and Emory of Washington, C. H., and four step sons, John, of Highland, avenue, this city; Jacob of Nelsonville, Henry, of Stockdale, and Leonard, of Washington, C. H., and two brothers, Lawrence Radebaugh of Wakenfield, and Edward Radebaugh of Wakenfield. She had a host of friends who will mourn the news of her death which though not sudden came as a severe shock to those who did not know she was seriously ill.

Mrs. Shonkewiler was a sweet and lovable woman and a loving mother, who was never so happy as when her children were gathered around her. To know her was to love her and even in her most serious illness, she maintained her cheerful disposition and bore her suffering without complaint.

She was a member of the Old Creek Baptist church and was always faithful in her church duties.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Lucasville M. E. Church, Rev. Chas. Reinhard of Sciotoville will be in charge. The remains will be taken from the home at 1:30 o'clock. The body will be laid to rest in the Lucasville cemetery.

Albert Morris, son of Lyman and Annie Morris, was born in Flatwoods, Mo., 1879. He departed this life April 19, 1922 at the age of 43 years, 10 months, 20 days at New Boston. He married Omiska Brisker July 12, 1911 and to this union were born three children, Lowell, age 10, Martha, age 6, and Phyllis Rosemary, who died in infancy. Besides his wife and children, he leaves an aged father, two sisters and four brothers, Frank, of near Lucasville; Elmer, of Plain City; Hilda, of Lucasville; Ira, of near Milford and Tom, and Sallie at home. His mother and two sisters, Emma and Jessie, preceded him to the Great Beyond.

He was a kind and loving husband and father, being greatly attached to his family.

Coming into this community to reside about three years ago, he made a host of friends, all of whom knew him to be a man of noble character. He was gentle, kind, honest, and a hard and steady worker. His sudden death was a terrible shock to everyone who had acquaintance with him and he will be sadly missed by all, and most especially by his dear ones all of whom are deeply grieved.

The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon. The sermon was preached by Rev. John Kemper at Glendale church, and the burial took place in Flatwoods cemetery. There were many beautiful floral offerings from sympathetic friends and relatives.

Judge Douglas

After ten days of rather serious illness at his home on South Paint street, Judge J. Clifford Douglas died at 3 a. m. Monday morning. Judge Douglas had been failing since just prior to his retirement from the bench in 1904 and his health steadily declined until he became bedfast about ten days ago. His death threw a pall of gloom over a wide circle of friends, for despite his illness he had always a dry bit of humor to enhance a story or illustrate a point in his every day conversation and contact with the public and he was beloved by many because of this and a kindness of spirit, which pervaded his relations with the lowly of life. His illness and death robbed the Ross County bar of one of its stellar figures also. (Chillicothe Gazette.)

THE CAMPAIGN FOR THRIFT

SAVING under any circumstances is commendable, but saving to such an extent that it requires real personal sacrifice is being encouraged in an organized way through societies that have for their aim the making of America a nation of savers, under the great banner of "Thrift." Considering the orgy of spending and extravagance that went on during war times and subsequently this campaign for "Thrift" is both timely and commendable.

Many leaders in our national life were made worthy of the exalted positions which they held, as a result of the bitter experiences of their early years. They learned the lessons of self-denial and sacrifice. They knew what it meant to suffer, to work hard and to be deprived of many of life's pleasant experiences.

To them the practice of thrift meant real heroism. Had they been unwilling to endure these privations they never would have developed that ruggedness of character necessary to the great accomplishments of their later years.

In practicing thrift do not choose the line of least resistance, warns Dr. S. W. Straus, president of the American Society for Thrift. "Do not see how little you can save. Do not coddle yourself by yielding to whims. If you do these things, the benefit of your scant economies will be accordingly of small account."

"Be willing to suffer real privations; not that you should become a miser or narrow in your viewpoints, but that you should become strong of will and a worthy fighter for a great cause namely, your own future success and happiness."

These suggestions embody one of the most important phases of thrift because they include the chief benefit that comes from prudent practice of economy.

It is not so much the amount of money saved that counts as it is the will-power employed in the saving.

The Thrift practices that count most are those that are accomplished by hardship and real self-denial for such experiences are most likely to prove stepping stones to greater things.

The fruits of victory are reserved for those who are willing to pay the price in sacrifice and service.

A SENSELESS THREAT

IN response to Will H. Hays' dictum against the showing of Arbuckle films comes intimation of an "outlaw" motion picture league composed of actors and others excluded from the circle of influences that dominate the industry. The sooner it is organized and attempts to do business the better. Nothing else those under the ban erected by Mr. Hays might do would more certainly put them out permanently.

Who besides Arbuckle is at present under the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors' displeasure is not revealed. What worthy performer would voluntarily enter his class? This fellow has been acquitted by a jury of manslaughter. He is entitled to a chance to redeem himself in public opinion and may do so by right living. But that is quite a different matter from exploiting the notoriety he gained by conduct shocking to a large part of the American populace. In time he might "come back." But he would find very rough traveling in company described as "outlaw."

A big pecuniary risk would be involved in forcing on the public performers adjudged by the leaders of the picture industry unworthy to be exhibited. The fact that the organization, of which Mr. Hays is the responsible head, has for its object raising the standard of the industry would stamp such opposition as inimical to public morals. The people would not support it. It would have rough going with the censors. All of its productions would be suspected and that part of the public which sought them would be disappointed if they were not a bit "shady."

The Genoa conference was called to assist some of those European countries in getting on their feet, but something seems to have gone awry with the program, as so far it is chiefly noted for the number it has disclosed standing on their heads.

If Queen Marie of Rumania, as reported, really decides to appear in a movie, some American favorites will do well to look to their laurels. Marie is one of Europe's most beautiful women and is still young enough to throw shadows on a lot of the professional beauties.

Doubtless the soviet agreed to cancel all claims against Germany because it already has enough of the German variety of money.

The similarity between the radio and the party variety phone is that you don't have to listen in unless you want to.

Apparently this man's town doesn't need much to fix it up. Just a million dollar hotel, a three-quarter million dollar bridge, a half million dollar court house, a two hundred and fifty thousand city hall, a two hundred thousand dollar sewer system and a hundred thousand dollar addition to the city hospital. Yes, get all these and a few other small trimmings, such as a railway station and a theatre and it will be quite all right.

Believe we would rather have winter come right end foremost.

Nothing so bad it can not be worse. The Cincinnati Reds might have lost six out of the half dozen games they have played, rather than five.

Merchants are going to spend some money and some effort in making Portsmouth the trade center of this territory. They deserve to succeed and will.

MOSES' ROD

GOD commanded Moses to tell the children of Israel all that he had said, but Moses was afraid they would not believe the Lord had spoken to him. Moses held a rod in his hand. God told him to cast it upon the ground; it became a serpent. God made Moses perform many miracles. Still Moses doubted that the people would believe. Moses' brother Aaron could speak well and God commanded that he go with Moses. They went back into Egypt and told the people what the Lord had spoken. They believed and bowed their heads and worshipped.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, April 25.—There is a thrill even for those left behind in watching an ocean liner shore off. It was one of the fastest ships sailing—piled high with gayly criss-crossed luggage. Masses of people strolling along the decks and faces glistening at the rails.

The hardened voyagers arrive long before sailing time and retire to their state-rooms. No excitement for them. Taxis and limousines roll up to the pier to unload passengers. The army of news and cinema photographers and ship news scribes surround each arrival.

If a passenger is considered important they permit him to pass—otherwise he must run the clicking camera gauntlet. In the crowds are a few faces aglit with hawk-like eyes. Their nerves are taut. If recognized they will be turned back. Card sharps. Despite a precaution, every line has them.

A burst of cheers. Jack Dempsey bashfully takes the spotlight. He has a winning school-boy air. He has a winning school-boy air. He has a winning school-boy air. He has a winning school-boy air. He has a winning school-boy air.

The Mocking Bird

Superb and sole, upon a plumed spray
That over the general leafage holdly grew,
He summ'd the woods in song; or typic drew
The watch of hungry hawks, the lone dismay
Of languid doves when long their lovers stray.

And all birds' passion plays that sprinkle dew
At morn in brake or bosky avenue.
Whate'er birds did or dreamed, this bird could say.

Then down he shook bounced airy along
The sward, twitched in a grasshopper, per, made song
Midnight, perched, and to his art again.
Sweet science, this large riddle read
no plain:
How may the death of that dull insect be seen?
The life of you trim Shakespeare on the tree?

—Sidney Lanier.
